A community on the rise

Nestled in Sydney's booming south-west, Argyle at Elderslie is set to become an enviable new community.

Designed with families in mind, this up-and-coming neighbourhood blends modern design with all the conveniences of village life. With 3.5 hectares of community reserves and parks, summers at Argyle mean good times with friends - picnics, sports, and BBQs.

Handy to everything

Here, everything you need is close by. Camden and Narellan are your town centres, where you'll find transport links, and plenty of culture, sports and recreation facilities like golf courses, BMX and netball clubs.
